

Print Media Advertising

Another very effective method of driving traffic to your website is to advertise in your local area using traditional print methods. Sky-works can help you advertise your new website to existing and new customers via your business cards, local newspapers and flyers. Bespoke print media solutions can be a relatively cheap method of attracting attention to your business, whether it be at the launch of your new website, or promoting an upcoming sale or event.

Business Cards

Adding your web address and details to a business card can allow your business to generate awareness in areas not normally
